Currywurst

CLASSICALLY SIMPLE

This beloved dish is iconic across Germany. Although often mistaken for a type of sausage, currywurst is a complete dish made with just three ingredients: sausages, ketchup, and curry powder. This recipe focuses on the Northern German style, but Southern Germans may prefer the Krakauer Bacon Frankfurter.

Prep Time 2 mins | Cook Time 6 mins

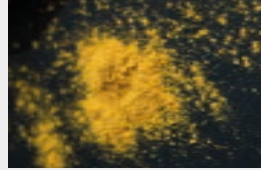

INGREDIENTS

BRATWURST XXL

CURRY KETCHUP

CURRY POWDER

INSTRUCTIONS

- 1 Firstly, cook the Sausages. Grill or pan-fry the bratwurst sausages over medium heat until they are browned and cooked through, about 5-6 minutes from chilled.
- 2 Next up, slice the Sausages. Once the sausages are cooked, slice them into bite-sized pieces. For large batches, consider using a currywurst slicer to save time.
- 3 Combine and Serve: Add 1 sausage serving to a bowl/ tray and pour a generous helping of curry ketchup over the sliced sausages, ensuring they are well-coated.
- 4 Lastly, garnish and serve! Sprinkle with curry powder over the ketchup so it remains visible. Serve as is or alongside fries.
